Aligarh, 18 August, 2015

To establish close collaboration with each other, Mangalayatan University and Beijing Wuzi University (BWU) of China have signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Tuesday. The MoU will open new frontiers for academia and students for more comprehensive research with their Chinese counterpart.

An academic delegation from BWU visited Mangalayatan University to sign the MoU. The Delegation consisted of Mr. Li Shizhu, Chairman, Council of BWU; Prof. Hu Zhanjun, Director Development Office; Mr. Liu Shibo Deputy Director Information Center and Ms. Wang Lei Deputy Director Department of International Relations.

Brig. (Dr.) Surjit Pabla, Vice-Chancellor, Mangalayatan University said that the University is trying to provide best international exposure to its students and to develop a deeper understanding of best practices in higher education. There is a lot of experience with BWU and students from MU can learn a lot from BWU.

‘The MoU will pave the way for mutual understanding and development of excellence in practice based education, research and knowledge exchange. Both Universities can exchange students and faculty or organize study abroad programmes and will host joint seminars and International conferences’, Brig. Pabla Said.

To explore the opportunities available in research and development, the University has already signed MoUs with three other top Chinese Universities. Now, our faculty members and students can join hands with their Chinese counterparts for joint research project(s) in Beijing Wuzi University, Liaoning University of Technology, Shenyang Jianzhu University and Shenyang Aerospace University in China. The MoUs will pave the way for faculty, students exchange, joint publications, joint seminars and academic meetings and joint academic programmes.

BWU consists of 3 academic schools and 4 departments offering 22 undergraduate academic programs. BWU has a total enrollment of over 8,200 students and more than 650 faculty and staff members. BWU places priority on international collaborations and is proactive in exploring academic exchanges with outside world. BWU has already established close collaborative relationships with the institutions of higher education and research organizations in Japan, Korea, New Zealand, UK and Australia, etc.

Cdr. Manjeet Singh, Registrar (Retd.), Mr. Karthik Gopalan, Vice-President (Operations), Prof. G.S. Agrawal, Controller of Examinations and Directors, HoDs from various institutes graced the occasion.
