Mangalayatan University (MU), a private university established under the provision of the Uttar Pradesh Private University Act, 2019 (U.P. Act no. 12 of 2019) and having its campus at Extended NCR, Mathura – Aligarh Highway, 33rd Milestone, Aligarh - 202145, Uttar Pradesh through its Registrar Brig SumarVir Singh (Hereinafter called the second Party)

Both parties hereto, recognizing the benefits of establishing link, wish to strengthen the ties between their respective institutions by entering into this Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU").

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED

1. The purpose of the MOU is to develop co-operation and promote mutual understanding and excellence in practice-based education, research and knowledge exchange between the Parties, so that the research and knowledge developed is used for regional, national and global well being of humanity.
2. Both parties agree to join hands and carry out collaborative research work by faculty and students in the following areas:-
 - a. To alleviate the sufferings of the local rural & urban people of Aligarh, and surrounding areas, and improve their quality of life.
 - b. Collaborative research work on water conservation and management, including river water management. (Ganga & Yamuna rivers)
 - c. Enhance technology of local industries.
 - d. Work on emerging technologies.
 - e. The outcome could be replicated in other parts of India or elsewhere in the world.
3. Both parties to establish centers of cooperation through mutual agreement. e.g AMU may establish Ganga Water Research Center while MU may establish Yamuna Water Research Center. (Faculty and students from both Universities to work in these centers)
4. Both will enter into joint research and development activities by initiating writing of detailed project report (DPR) and submission of the project proposal to the funding agency like DBT, DST, CSIR, ICMR, ICAR, or any other national and/or international funding agencies. The idea is to explore joint research programmes and bring out intellectually driven product lines and patent generation. Thus, both agree in terms of exchange of information and fostering collaboration in research and educational training programmes.

5. In furtherance of this purpose the Parties agree to develop the following activities in collaboration in areas of mutual academic interest:
 - a. Exchanges of students and faculty for study programmes, research and other enhancements to the students experience.
 - b. Identifying opportunities for conducting collaborative research and development.
 - c. Identifying opportunities for conducting lectures and seminars and organizing symposia and conferences.
 - d. Exchanges of academic information and materials
 - e. Promoting collaboration in fields of mutual interest
 - f. Promoting other academic co-operation and collaboration as mutually agreed.
6. The development and implementation of specific activities developed under the MOU will be the subject to formal written agreements negotiated and entered into separately, which will deal with the financial arrangements, confidentiality, ownership and use of intellectual property, publication of articles or the work and relevant matters.
7. It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of co-operation stated in MOU shall depend upon the availability or resources and financial support of the Parties concerned.
8. Both Parties agree that staff and students of either institution engaged in activities under this MOU shall carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of their respective institutes after full consultation and approval.
9. This MOU may only be amended by a written agreement signed by a duly authorized representative of each Party.
10. This MOU shall commence on the date of its execution by the last Party to sign and shall remain in force for a period of five years. Each Party shall review the status of the MOU at least six months before the end of the five year period to determine whether it wishes the MOU to continue and, if so, whether any modifications are required. The Period of validity of this MOU may only be extended by the mutual written consent of both Parties.
